Committee Report:

FAHU Symposium...PGA...Next week...still not too late to register!

Annual Medical Loss Ratio Rebates...being released by the carriers.

Short Term Medical Plans

Carriers are working on plan designs in efforts to gain state regulator approval.
Worries about consumers not understanding what they are purchasing.

Universal Healthcare

Picking up steam at state levels as several Democrat gubernatorial candidates are pledging single payer ("Medicare for All") as part of their campaign platform.

HSA Expansion

House passes tow bill outlining proposed changes to HSA provisions addressing underutilization and benefit expansion.

Proposed to increase contribution limits, repeal restriction on over the counter purchases, allow the use of account funds to pay premiums, includes limited first dollar coverage for PCP and Telehealth services, some wellness coverage and allow Medicare Part A covered working seniors to contribute to accounts.

Annual Employer CMS Credible Coverage Disclosure Notices (Medicare Part D)

Due to be filed (online) by October 15th.
